May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Gracious God,
you have called us
to be the Church of Jesus Christ.
Keep us one in faith and service;
breaking bread together
and telling the good news to the world;
that all may believe you are love,
turn to your ways, and live to your glory;

Letter from Andrew Housley

Dear Friends,

I was a late convert to caravanning, but I am hooked! I have been a caravanner for four years, and whenever I meet another caravanner I can happily chat away for hours about our shared passion. I love the freedom of caravan holidays and the ability to take my home comforts on holiday. I like chatting to people at the communal sinks about new caravan gizmos. I especially like watching the children play football late into the evening and playing cards and board games before we go to sleep. I can't imagine why anyone wouldn't want a caravan! Some may worry about towing or long road journeys, but we have discovered a 'game' to make the journey seem shorter, 'spot the caravan and guess its berth'!

I have no doubt that we all have an interest we enjoy chatting about and when we have the opportunity to chat about our interests we are never short of something to say. Indeed, the recent referendum in Scotland was fuelled with much passion. Politicians and citizens from the four corners of Britain had an opinion on the subject, but those living in Scotland expressed more than an opinion, they argued with passion.

Christian mission is not about expressing an opinion, it is about sharing our passion for what we believe is both true and of benefit for the whole world. The early church wouldn't have had the impact it had if it wasn't for them opening their lives to the Holy Spirit so that they could share the passion of Christ with the world.

During October, we will celebrate Harvest Thanksgiving. We have so much, for which we give thanks to God! Let us find opportunities to chat to our friends and family about the God who gives us so much and invite them to come along and join us in our thanksgiving.

Psalm 95:1-6 - O Come, let us sing for joy to the LORD; Let us shout joyfully to the rock of our salvation. Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving; Let us shout joyfully to Him with psalms. For the LORD is a great God, And a great King above all gods, In whose hand are the depths of the earth; The peaks of the mountains are His also. The sea is His, for it was He who made it; And His hands formed the dry land. Come, let us worship and bow down; Let us kneel before the LORD our Maker.

Andrew

Holy Communion in the Community

The Holy Communion Services in Stockley Crescent, St Michael's Hall and Bickerstaffe School are a wonderful opportunity for outreach. Please invite friends!!

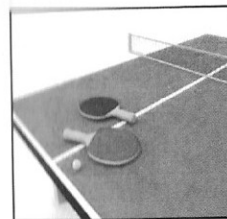

"For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes."

1 Corinthians 11:26

- St Michael's Hall, Wednesdays at 11am on 8th October (with soup lunch) and then 22nd October and 29th October.
- The service of Holy Communion at Stockley Crescent will be on Tuesday 7th October at 1pm.
- Holy Communion at Bickerstaffe School will take place on Friday 24th October at 2.40pm. Everyone welcome.

Pathfinder Group and Youth Club

The Youth Club is for those of school Year 6+ and meets at St Michael's Hall between 6.30pm – 8pm. The Pathfinder Group meets at 6pm for half an hour before the Youth Club starts at 6.30pm.

The youth group will meet on 12th October, 26th October, 16th November, 30th November, and 14th December.

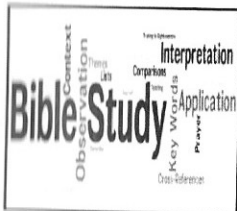

Book Club

The next meeting will be held on 19th November, 8.00pm at the Derby Arms pub, Aughton.

We have chosen to read Shakespeare's play "King John". In the shadow of Shakespeare's second tetralogy of history plays lies this neglected masterpiece. The play is cursed with the egregious reputation of being Shakespeare's great artistic failure. Never has a work so remarkable been so consistently underrated. With its vigorous plot, immortal verse, and subtle combination of Tudor and Machiavellian theories on kingship, King John is worthy of rediscovery.

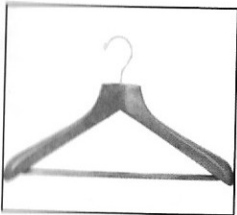

Steve Hall

Good Book Club

The first Good Book Club will be at St Michael's Hall on Wednesday 8th October at 8pm, when we'll discuss 1 Samuel. Please read the First book of Samuel before we meet and bring drink and nibbles.

Children's clothes collection

If you are having a 'clear out' of good quality children's clothes, school clothes, shoes, and other equipment such as football boots and swimming costumes, please consider passing them into the back of church for the community at Litherland Moss School. Your donations really do make a difference to local families experiencing great need. Thank you.

Commemoration of the Departed Service

On Sunday 9th November at 6.30pm, there will be a service at St Michael's to remember those who have passed away. Invitations will be sent to those who have had services arranged by St Michael's and Holy Trinity during the past twelve months.

If you would like a name added to the list to be read out during the service, please phone Christine on 424457 or, if you attend Holy Trinity, then please add names to a list at the back of church.

Advent Groups

During Advent, there will be Advent groups meeting within the Benefice reflecting upon the course, 'JESUS: the voice that makes us turn', published by York Courses.

It is a four-part course, reflecting on Jesus' many voices. A Crying Voice homes in on the baby's cry at Bethlehem, announcing that God was in town. An Other Voice focuses on the strangeness of Christ, whose command stilled the storm and forgave sins and raised the dead. A Dying Voice sees new depths for living in Jesus' familiar words from the cross. A Rising Voice examines the immense quality which made downhearted disciples turn and fire the world with their faith. Four different voices that will make us turn in our tracks and say to Christ, 'I want you!'

The four sessions are entitled: Session (1) A Crying Voice; Session (2) An Other Voice; Session (3) A Dying Voice; Session (4) A Rising Voice. If you would like to join a group, please sign up at the back of church.

Prayer Time: Prayers for Peace

For when two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

Matthew

18:20.

Let there be peace on earth.

And let it begin with me.

Let there be peace on earth.

And let it begin in my heart.

Let there be miracles on earth.

And let them begin with my faith.

Let there be a future.

And let it begin with my action – now.

Author unknown.

The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good me to do nothing.

Edmund Burke.

I have many times asked myself whether there can be more potent advocates of peace upon earth through the years to come than this massed multitude of silent witnesses to the desolation of war.

'School Memories' by Owen Taylor

How interesting to learn the pupils of Bickerstaffe C. of E. School have participated in the burying of a Time-Capsule, that will stay underground for the next thirty years, to coincide with the school's bi-centenary in 2044.

Imagine if Victorian pupils had carried out similar experiment. What would have been revealed? Probably, the first observations would be the small size of the original school, then only consisting of two rooms, one of which had a separation screen. The long brick edifice, on the North side, hitherto, the senior boy's classroom, was erected in 1884, due to the expanding population of the Township. During construction, a break from routine ensued, when classes were transferred to Bickerstaffe Hall barn for lessons.

Perhaps, one of the biggest changes from a century ago, is the 'Broad Lancashire' dialect, commonplace in village areas. Today's generation would be at a loss, wondering what their Fore-fathers were talking about! (e.g 'Wheer's bin?' – 'Where have you been?'- 'I outn't'- 'I should not have' – 'Morn't' – 'Must not'.)

Another noticeable curiosity existed in the infants classroom, where half of the floor space consisted of steps, along which, long wooden desks were placed, with simple bare forms to sit on. Known as the gallery, they remained in use until the outbreak of the Second World War, c.1939 (the sloping outline of the steps is still visible).

Hygiene standards too, were well below par. In those far off days, only primitive, earth-lavatories and tin wash-basins existed. There were improvements in 1903, but it would still seem unsatisfactory in today's society. It must be remembered that connection to the main sewerage plant only commenced in 1962.

Early documentation exhibits a grant by Edward Geoffrey, 14th Earl of Derby, of land in Bickerstaffe, for a school, with an architectural-plan and Heraldic Seal, dated 3rd February, 1844. Also registered with the same date and seal, are the 'Assignment of Fees'. After a directive was issued by the Government, both were deposited by Revd. Watts, at the Lancashire Record Office in Preston, on 3rd July 1941, for safekeeping during the war.

THE TRUSTEES OF BICKERSTAFFE NATIONAL SCHOOLS GIVE NOTICE

That the Scale of Payments in these Schools will hereafter be as follows, in every case to be paid in advance at the beginning of each quarter :

	Per Quarter.
For Farmers' and Tradesmen's first Child	6s.
„ Ditto second Child	4s.
„ Ditto each additional Child	2s.
„ Labourer's first Child	3s.
„ Ditto second Child	2s.
„ Ditto each additional Child	1s.
In the Infant School, in every case	2s.
per Child, or if parents prefer it 2½d. per week to be paid in advance at the beginning of each week.

Bickerstaffe, June, 1859.

Fees were charged for Education until 1902. At this time in 1859, Agricultural Workers were paid 15 shillings per week (75p)

The stone, used in construction of the school, was quarried from Barrow Nook Delph and most likely for the two teachers, houses were erected at the edge of the playground.

Bickerstaffe School 1908

Directories record twelve Head Teachers, up to the 150th Anniversary in 1994. The first mentioned were Stover Marshall Laken (Master) and Martha Weeks (Mistress). In 1854, Jacob Davenport was engaged as Master, he lived in Bickerstaffe.

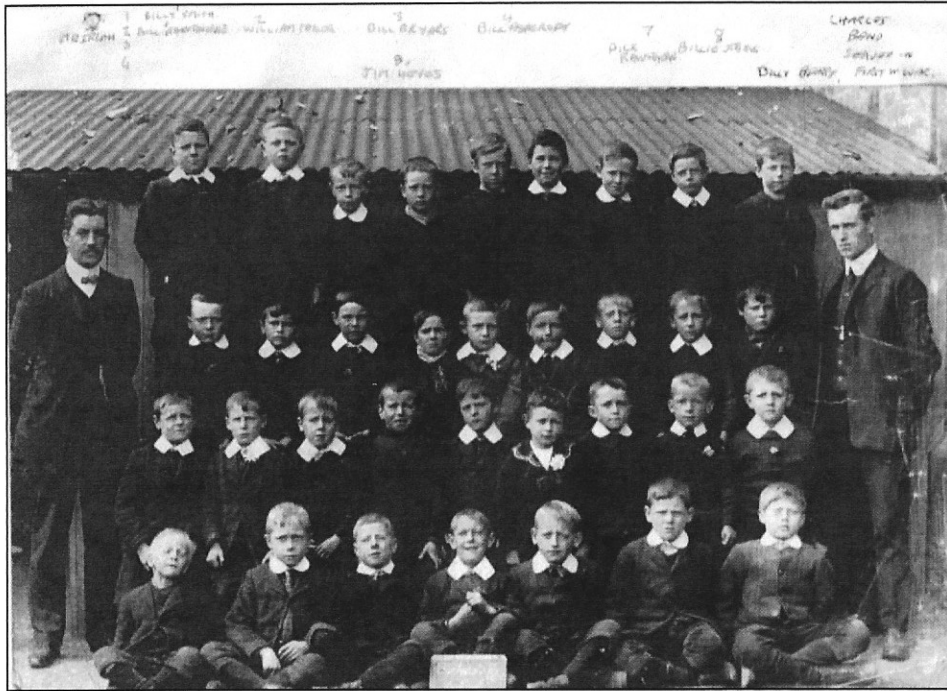

There were many happenings in the next period, from 1869, when for the first time, an 'Infant Teacher', named Margaret Melrose, was installed. Teaching beside her was, Elizabeth Whitfield, Girl's Mistress and Boy's Headmaster, Robert Wilkinson. He was disliked by pupils, so much so, they organised a gang to stand up against him and after the School Governor's became aware of the severity of the punishment he handed out, they dismissed him forthwith.

Infants Class 1928

The next long serving Headmaster was John Gilbert, he, along with Catherine Gregson, Girl's Mistress and Eliza Shacklady, Infants Mistress, were first recorded as teachers in 1882. Headmaster Gilbert was a puritanical type of gentleman, although a strict disciplinarian, he was also very fair. He liked pupils to touch their caps whenever he met them, inside, or outside, school. Mr Gilbert was also an accomplished organist and choirmaster and his photograph is preserved in the Vestry at Bickerstaffe Church. In his final years as Headmaster, he witnessed the abolishment of fee-paying. In 1902, the 'Education Act' made State education compulsory and free.

Following on from Headmaster Gilbert, was Headmaster W. Irlam, who taught the senior boys for 34 years, until he retired in 1937. He was noted for his frequent use of the cane.

Class of 1908, with Headmaster Irlam (far left) and Teacher Charles Band, who used to send letters from the trenches when serving in the Great War.

Big changes arrived in 1938, when, for the first time, mixed classes were introduced. Miss Stockley was appointed Head Teacher, she had a more modern approach and made learning interesting and although strict, most children did well under her guidance.

News from Bickerstaffe Church of England Primary School

It is good to be back after a very enjoyable and memorable holiday. In our Collective Worship we have been talking about: 'Team Bickerstaffe' and what it means to be a good member of our team.

We have also talked about: 'Koinonia', with love being at the centre of our community; this is particularly important within our Church School as we search for personal meaning as a member of God's family. It is our intention that the children themselves will be very pro-active promoting 'Our School Expectations – Respect for Ourselves, Respect for Others, and Respect for the World', and that they will look at ways in which we can continue to strengthen our understanding of Christian values and the importance of the Olympic values 'Respect', 'Friendship', 'Equality', 'Determination', 'Courage', 'Excellence' and 'Inspiration'.

It has been amazing to see how well our new children have settled into school life. The 'Gruffallo Class (our Reception children) are now staying all day. Their class is always an exciting place to be, take a look at @BickerstaffeCE on 'Twitter' to see the fun learning taking place in this class and across the whole school.

'Keep Reading.....'

This is an important message for all of our children. In school we promote the importance of reading, and try to encourage the habit of regular reading through our 'I Enjoy Reading' incentive scheme, whereby children can earn themselves books and book tokens. This year we want to award even more children for regular reading at home.

Does it make a difference? The answer is definitely, yes! We had improved reading levels across all year groups last year; and Sats for Year 6 in reading, with 100% attaining Level 4+ was well above the national average of 85%.

Very high standards with above national average results were also seen in Mathematics and Science at every level. 'Well done our Year 6 Leavers' of Summer 2014!' and 'Well done our teachers!'

It has also been a delight to hear about the achievements of past pupils in their recent exams - "Congratulations and Best Wishes to You All!" We hope that all our leavers (no matter how old they are) still feel welcome and visit us. Our new Year 6 however, have lost no time in ably stepping up to fill the void. I am sure that they too, will have a very successful year.

Having said 'Goodbye!' to Mrs Hackett & Mr Ballard at the end of the year, we have been joined by two new teachers, Miss O'Kane and Miss Grice, both of whom we welcome to our school and the wider community. And, we would like to congratulate Mrs Hodgson on her new appointment as our Site Supervisor following the retirement of Mrs Percival. Mrs Hodgson did a fabulous job during the summer with a deep clean, making the school sparkle for our return.

The beginning of the school year is always an exciting one; the children returned looking immaculate in their new school uniforms and with big smiles as they greeted one another; and the teachers were all refreshed and buzzing with new ideas to make learning fun and enjoyable. Two weeks later (as I write this) we are still feeling excited about the year ahead, and it promises to be a good one, but more about that next month.

Our 'Open Day & Evening' is on Wednesday 8th October. School is open for visitors from 9.30am until 5:00pm, so come along and see us. All parents with children of pre-school age are welcome to come and see for themselves what we have to offer, so again please spread the word. There will be leaflets at the back of church, please feel free to take them and distribute them as you wish.

Best wishes,

Smile Time: Nuns discussing drinks

Arthur was sitting outside his local pub one day, enjoying a quiet pint and generally feeling good about himself, when a nun suddenly appears at his table and starts decrying the evils of drink.

"You should be ashamed of yourself young man! Drinking is a Sin! Alcohol is the blood of the devil!" Now Arthur gets pretty annoyed about this, and goes on the offensive.

"How do you know, Sister?"

"My Mother Superior told me so"

"But have you ever had a drink yourself? How can you be sure that what you are saying is right?"

"Don't be ridiculous - of course I have never taken alcohol myself"

"Then let me buy you a drink - if you still believe afterwards that it is evil I will give up drink for life."

"How could I, a Nun, sit outside this public house drinking?!"

"I'll get the barman to put it in a teacup for you, then no-one will know"

The Nun reluctantly agrees, so Arthur goes inside to the bar.

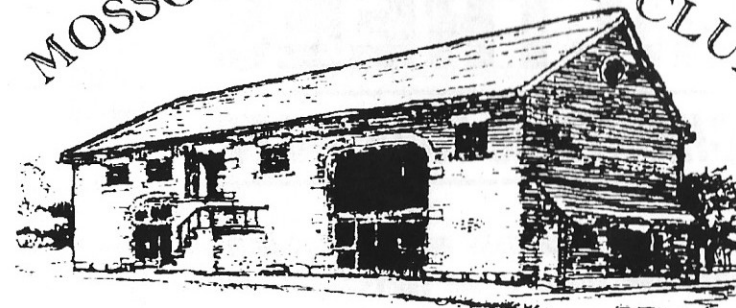

"Another pint for me, and a triple vodka on the rocks", then he lowers his voice and says to the barman "... and could you put the vodka in a teacup?"

"Oh no! It's not that drunken Nun again is it?"
