

Bible verse for 2019

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

1 Corinthians 13:4-7

Liverpool Diocesan Prayer

Loving Father, by your grace
we long to see more people knowing Jesus,
and more justice in your world.
Help us to live as your disciples
in the power of the Spirit
and to work to your praise and glory.
Amen.

Letter from Andrew Housley

Dear Friends,

The other day I came across an article about national anthems. Within the article was a list of the first word of national anthems. Below are a few.

France	Arise
Germany	Germany
Rep. of Ireland	Soldiers
Italy	Brothers
UK	God

The article mentioned that the UK national anthem was a prayer and so starts with the word 'God'. A reminder that the UK is not a secular state. Our laws and values are a reflection of our Christian heritage, as is our hospitality and respect of those of other faiths.

Another reminder of our Christian heritage is that most national events and commemorations are usually marked by a service of prayer and worship. The most notable of course being Remembrance Sunday, which is well supported each year. The hymns sung and the poems read each year are familiar and associated with the special day as much as carols are associated with Christmas. And of course, the service is concluded with 'God Save the Queen'. Remembrance Sunday is not about triumphalism but remembrance, and committing ourselves to work and pray for peace in honour of those who died in war.

Below is a new prayer written for the special day of Remembrance Sunday.

God of justice and peace,
we pray for those who have been injured
or disabled through war.
For those who have lost homes
and security through conflict;
for those who have lost loved relatives in wars;
for those who face danger and take risks for peace;
for all those, especially children, caught up in current conflicts;
for refugees and all those in need of aid and other help.
God of encouragement
and Saviour of the despairing,
comfort those who remember past sacrifices
and guide us in building
a just and peaceful community for all.
Amen.

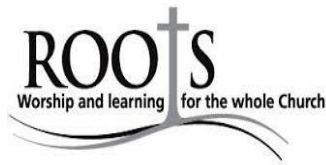

Andrew

Worship & Learning

3rd November: Something to boast about 2 Thessalonians 1.1-4,11-12

The authors tell the Christians in Thessalonica that their love for each other and their faithfulness to God is something to boast about, and pray that God's power will enable them to remain faithful to their calling.

A personal prayer

Lord, in my life today, I pray that you would increase the love I have for you and for others, that I might live a life worthy of your call, so that the name of Jesus might be glorified in me. In Jesus' name. Amen.

10th November: Don't be shaken 2 Thessalonians 2.1-5,13-17

The Thessalonians have been shaken by a message that 'the day of the Lord is already here', so they are reminded of the good news. Jesus will return at the right time, and for now he is strengthening them in word and deed.

A personal prayer

God of the living, live in me.
Through your Holy Spirit,
give me the ability
to discern fact from fiction,
to recognise truth when I see it,
and to weigh all things carefully.
Grant me wisdom and guidance,
and lead me into all truth.
In the precious name of Jesus. Amen.

17th November: Pull your weight

2 Thessalonians 3.6-13

Some of the assembly at Thessalonica have given up working for their living and have become 'busybodies'. Paul says all should follow his example of being self-supporting, and those who refuse to work should not be admitted to the shared meals of the community.

A personal prayer

O God, sometimes my days feel so unproductive – tasks can feel repetitive and uninspiring.

Refresh me in my daily work,
in the things I do for you and for others.
Make me strong in love and compassion,
that I may reflect your glory,
even in the smallest pieces of my life.

In Jesus' name.

Amen.

24th November: A criminal king

Luke 23.33-43

On the cross, Jesus is mocked as a false messiah by Jewish leaders, Roman soldiers and one of the criminals dying beside him. He forgives those who are crucifying him and welcomes 'the penitent thief' into paradise.

A personal prayer

Jesus, you alone are above all things
and in you all things hold together.
In you I find my peace, my hope, my joy.
When my eyes grow dim

and my life gets cluttered by other things,
restore my vision.

Remind me that you are bigger than all the 'stuff' my life feels made of,
and that I can depend on you.

Thank you, Lord. Amen.

Posada

'Posada' in Spanish means lodging. It is used as a title for a Mexican tradition of dramatizing the nativity story. In recent years, churches have used the term for a way to involve a community in getting ready for Christmas. In Bickerstaffe, starting in Advent, models of Mary and Joseph will be taken from home to home within the parish and then be brought back to church for the Crib Service on Christmas Eve. If you would like to host Mary and Joseph, there will be a form to sign.

Parish Register

Funeral

The funeral took place October 22nd of Rita Mary Appleton aged 86 of Stanley Farm, Bickerstaffe followed by burial in the Churchyard.

Please continue to keep the family in your prayers. Thank you.

Prayer Time

We pray for our communities -

that snapshot of humanity
with all ages, backgrounds,
education, employment status,
politics and religious viewpoint
who are our neighbours
in the streets where we live.

We pray for all of them;
not only those we know by name
and chat to through the day,
but also less familiar faces about whom we know so little and pass by with just a smile.
Bless their homes and families,
and let your love and peace
so shine within this community that smiles turn to conversations,
and strangers become friends.
We pray this through Jesus Christ,
the Prince of Peace. Amen

Knowing you are with us

in the ebbs and flows
of our everyday lives,
your Spirit's presence
within our hearts,
your gentle whisper
guiding our steps,
your warm embrace
when times are hard,
your hands held out
each time we fall.
Knowing you are with us
in our everyday lives
is blessing enough for today.

We pray for all whose lives
have been touched by tragedy,

whether by accident
or a deliberate act.
For those who mourn,
immerse them in your love
and lead them through this darkness
into your arms, and light.
For those who comfort,
be in both the words they use
and all that's left unspoken;
fill each heart with love.
We ask this through Jesus Christ,
whose own suffering brought us life,
here and for eternity. Amen

Bickerstaffe Lodge News

Well it's been a while since we last reported on our activities here at Bickerstaffe Lodge, but hopefully now we will keep you updated with regular reports on the education and fun activities that we have going on.

September has been a busy month (and we can't believe it's nearly half term) settling in all our children new and old, and introducing them to a few new activities and routines. The children have been enjoying outdoor play as much as possible, especially the 'Mud Kitchen'. Our new window bird feeder is proving very popular as the children get quite excited when our feathered friends appear at the window for a snack. They have bird reference books to look at as well as some binoculars and a camera for further investigation.

We recently held a Macmillan Coffee Morning and enjoyed some lovely homemade cakes and biscuits including ones baked by our children. We raised £28.50 for this very worthy cause. We have also recently had a fruitful collection of bags of unwanted clothing, which has helped us to raise further funding for new educational resources. Empty bags are available at The Lodge if you would like to contribute for our next collection.

We are looking forward to a few more children joining us over the next few months, however we still have a few places available so if you or anyone you know may be interested please get in touch. Just a short report for now but we will be back next month with more news.

Take care everyone, and best wishes to you all from everyone at Bickerstaffe Lodge.

'The Wartime Vicar' By Owen Taylor

For almost a century, Parishioners, young and old, have stood in silence at the War Memorial in remembrance of the Bickerstaffe Fallen, in two World Wars. The unveiling ceremony took place on Monday, 21st March, 1921 and was dedicated by Archdeacon Spooner, after which a 'Firing Party' from Seaforth Barracks, fired three volleys. The service ended as the 'Last Post' was sounded by a Bugler from the Skelmersdale Prize Band.

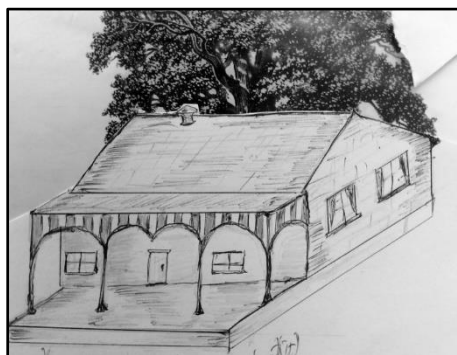

The same year saw the arrival of Revd. Bertram Watts to the incumbency. He soon became involved in giving help and advice to Bickerstaffe's 150 ex-servicemen. He realised the carnage the combatants had witnessed, after a recent tour of the Battlefields. His knowledge was beneficial when British Legion members were building a 'Recreational Hut', in 1924.

The Revd. Canon. Watts – he brought the Wooden Cross to Bickerstaffe Church from Flanders, (now in the North Isle) after a Battlefield Pilgrimage in 1921.

The Auxiliary Fire Service, Air Raid Wardens and Home Guard attending a Church Parade. The British Legion Hut is arrowed in the background.

Artists impression of the Recreational Hut built near the Church in 1924.

Within months of the outbreak of World War 2, the Reverend joined the Home Guard and the Rank of 'Acting Chaplain' was bestowed on him. His Chauffeur often remarked how he would always want to travel somewhere when an 'Air Raid' was in progress. When visiting Home Guard Headquarters at Bickerstaffe School, the guard on duty would warn his comrades that the Vicar had arrived, by pulling hidden string, fastened to a tin-can, with a marble inside.

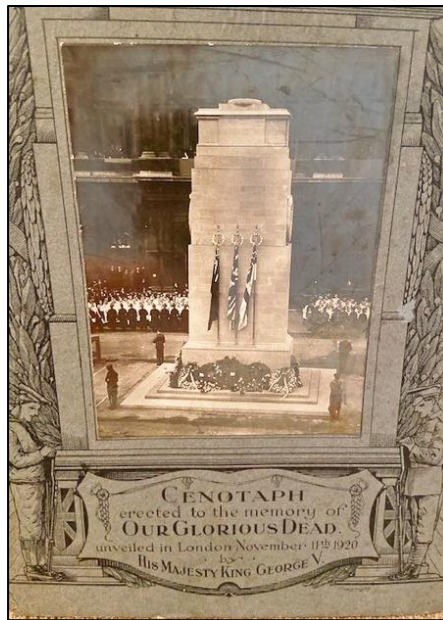

Revd. Watts as Acting Chaplain in Home Guard – 2nd Right, front row. As you can see, he is wearing his clergy collar.

Perhaps the Revd. Watts wrote the most moving words in the Parish Magazine, after the surrender of Japan was announced by Emperor Hirohito, on the 15th August 1945, thus bringing the hostilities of W.W.2 to an end ‘August 1945 will be an outstanding date in the history of the world and especially of our own Empire and country. Peace was obtained far more rapidly than any of us imagined and indeed, before we were prepared for it.’

Suddenly at midnight, the new Prime Minister announced the good news and the following two days were a time for rejoicing. In spite of the short notice, a large number gathered in the Church at 7 o'clock. Gatherings throughout the parish had their rejoicing and the countryside was scattered with bonfires, while the sky was alive with streams of light. It was more a relief from great peril, than a rejoicing of victory.

The London Cenotaph unveiled 11th November 1920.

‘The dawn has come from the horrid nightmare of terrors, let us gird ourselves for the high endeavour, to bring peace to every heart.’

In June 1947, the Reverend Cannon Watts announced he was retiring from church-living after 39 years, the last 29 of which, had been in Bickerstaffe.

His last words in the Parish Magazine were, ‘I leave with great regret, but with a host of friends of the years of peace and war.’
